

Society for Creative Anachronism (New Zealand) Inc.

Code of Conduct

This code sets out the expected behaviour of all participants [was members] of the Society for Creative Anachronism New Zealand Incorporated (the “Society”) within New Zealand.

The Code

All participants of the Society are expected to uphold these behaviours during events, activities, and meetings, whether in person, online, in print or via other media, with other participants in the Society.

These include:

- Behaving with courtesy, honesty and integrity; respecting the rights, dignity, personal privacy and worth of others.
- Acting with all care and due diligence, accepting responsibility of your actions and using the Society's resources in a proper manner.
- Behaving in a way that upholds the underlying Core Values of the Society whether in person, in print or via other media.
- Behaving in a way that does not adversely affect the integrity and good reputation of the Society.
- Not using the Society to promote your own beliefs, behaviours or practices where these are not compatible with the Core Values of the Society.
- Complying with any lawful and reasonable direction given by a person having the authority to give the direction.
