IMPORTANT INFORMATION

DUTY OF DISCLOSURE:

You have a duty to disclose every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know that is relevant to an Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms. The same duty applies during the currency of the policy, on renewal, endorsement, reinstatement or variation of the policy. Disclosure is not limited to specific questions on the proposal, or matter applying to the insured named in the policy, but includes other relevant matters, including past business or private insurances.

Examples of information you may need to disclose include:

- Any claims, or incidences that could lead to a claim, not already notified;
- Any criminal offence;
- Any cancellation, refusal to renew insurance, or imposing of special terms by another insurance company;
- Any insurance claims you have made in the past;
- Any change in circumstances or activities which could increase the risk of an insurance claim.

If you are in doubt it is better to provide the information rather than take the risk of failing in your duty of disclosure.

Breach of Policy Conditions:

Failure in your duty of disclosure, or breach of any Policy condition or warranty, could result in an otherwise legitimate claim being declined, a reduction in claim settlement or your Policies could even be declared null and void.

CLAIMS:

There are a number of steps that must be taken immediately for all types of potential claims:

- Report the incident as soon as practicable – contact JLT on 03 366 4866 or 0800 111 644.
- Do not admit liability and do not agree to pay for damage caused to another party, even if you think you were at fault and irrespective of the circumstances of the incident. Your Insurer will handle any negotiations necessary.
- Safeguard the property from further damage – call emergency services, secure the site, if safety allows remove property which may be exposed to further danger.
- Report any theft, arson or malicious damage to the Police and keep the Police notification receipt to lodge with your claim.
- Your Insurers may appoint an assessor who will advise and instruct you regarding your claim. It is important that you follow their advice or instructions. JLT will assist you with advice on individual claims.
- Be aware that what may appear to be minor property damage can escalate into serious loss – do not delay in notifying us of the incident.

Claims Made and Notified:

Certain categories of policy are provided on a 'claims made and notified' basis. This means that any claim or circumstance known to the insured must be notified to Insurers as soon as possible and within the current insurance year. Failure to do so is likely to lead to your claim being declined.
